[PROPOSED] MODIFIED
JUDGMENT UPON REMITTITUR

Petitioner, The Bank of New York Mellon (the “Trustee”), having applied to this Court for an order pursuant to CPLR § 7701 for judicial instructions and approval of a settlement entered into by and among the Trustee, Bank of America Corporation, BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, Countrywide Financial Corporation, and Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. (the “Settlement”);

UPON all pleadings heretofore had;

UPON all proceedings, including 36 days of evidentiary hearing from June 3, 2013 to November 21, 2013;

UPON the Order and Judgment, Supreme Court, New York County (Barbara R. Kapnick, J.), entered February 21, 2014, which, among other things, stated on page 53 that “paragraphs (h), (i), (j), (k), and (t) of the PFOJ [Proposed Final Order and Judgment] are approved to the extent that they do not apply to the loan modification claims” and “it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Settlement Agreement is approved except to the extent that it releases the loan modification claims”;

UPON the Decision and Order of the Appellate Division, First Department, entered March 5, 2015, which ordered that the February 21, 2014 judgment “should be modified, on the law and the facts, to approve the settlement in all respects, including the aspect releasing the loan modification claims, and otherwise affirmed” and stated “that the Trustee did not abuse its discretion or act unreasonably or in bad faith in embarking on the settlement here,” that “[t]he Trustee acted within its authority throughout the process, and there is no indication that it was acting in self-interest or in the interests of BofA rather than those of the ~~certificateholders~~ ^{certificateholders},” and that “it would have been unreasonable to decline to enter into the settlement”;

UPON a Remittitur having been filed with the New York County Clerk (NYSCEF Doc. No. 1145) on March 9, 2015.

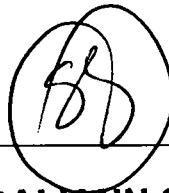

NOW, in accordance with the Decision and Order of the Appellate Division, First Department, entered March 5, 2015, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the above Order and Judgment of the Supreme Court, New York County, entered February 21, 2014, is “modified, on the law and the facts, to approve the settlement in all respects, including the aspect releasing the loan modification claims,” as follows:

1. The settlement is approved in all respects, including the aspect releasing the loan modification claims;
2. The final sentence of the middle paragraph on page 53 is modified to delete the clause “to the extent that they do not apply to the loan modification claims”; and
3. The first sentence of the final paragraph on page 53 is modified to delete the clause “except to the extent that it releases the loan modification claims.”

The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter this Modified Judgment as a Judgment.
